Aloha Paradise

The Hawaiian Islands have long been a favored locale for weddings and honeymoons, and Maui's brand-new resort, Montage Kapalua Bay, will delight couples desiring a romantic getaway. Escape frigid winter temperatures to bask in warmer climes at the intimate 50-room location offering luxurious all-suite accommodations. Individuals who choose to host their nuptials on-site will be enchanted with an oceanfront ceremony featuring memorable Hawaiian customs including a conch shell blessing, as well as an array of cultural activities for out-of-town guests such as hula dancing and lei-making lessons. The property's impressive 30,000-square-foot spa and nearby white sand beaches, snorkeling reefs, and championship golf courses make this a must-see destination for island visitors. 808.662.6600, montagehotels.com/kapaluabay.

LES FLEURS

From The Hidden Garden's Amy Marella comes a design-it-yourself flower bar where you are the "fleurist." Recently opened in the Brentwood neighborhood of Los Angeles, Fleurish makes it simple for brides and bridesmaids to create beautiful floral arrangements – designed by one of the wedding industry's leading florists – with step-by-step tutorials. Stop by to pick up a premade seasonal bouquet, or build your own using a specialty FleurKit, which includes a stylish vase, flowers and trimmings, professional tools, and a lovely box for easy transport. Ideal for bridal showers, the sunlight-filled store offers classes and is available for private events. *Located at 11906 San Vicente Boulevard, Los Angeles, CA; 310.575.8775, youfleurish.com.
